General information about the 2022 ICDAD Travel Grant

ICDAD is awarding three travel grants for museum professionals under 40 in order to participate at the ICOM General Conference 2022 in Prague:

- Czech grant (for young museum professionals from outside Prague): up to 400 €
- European grant: up to 1,000 €
- Non-European grant: up to 2,000 €

Note: The grant does not include post-conference tour or conference dinner. Grants will be distributed after the conference, based on the justifying documents provided. The grantees pay their expenses and shall transfer all the invoices to the IC (treasurer) after the event. If the total amount of invoices is inferior to the grant, the IC reimburses only the invoices paid by the member. If the total amount of invoices is superior to the grant, the reimbursement of the IC is limited to it.

Criteria:

- has applied to the ICDAD Call for Papers
- able to understand and speak English
- museum employee
- individual member of ICOM and ICDAD
- up-to-date with their membership dues ("in good standing")
- priority will be given to young members (≤ 40 years) from countries belonging to Categories 4, 3 and 2 (as defined in the ICOM membership grid) who haven't received grants in the previous three years

Please send your application to secretary.icdad@icom.museum and include:

- the completed and signed application form
- a 500 words statement of your motivation for attending the General conference and the benefits which you expect to derive from it
- your curriculum vitae indicating training, work experience, publications as well as current work responsibilities within your institution (maximum one page)
- a copy of a valid travel document (passport or identity card)

Each grantee will be required to submit a report and/or a questionnaire within two weeks following the meeting, stating their experience and contribution to ICOM activities at the General Conference.
